The management of the Convent Girls' Bazaar to be held at Lyra Hall the coming week, May 8, 9 and 10, wish it understood that there will positively be no soliciting for chances of any sort in the hall during the progress of the bazaar, and that no effort will be spared to give their patrons every possible pleasure. The room will be converted into a floral bower, and at all hours of the evening music will be discoursed by an orchestra of ladies stationed on the stage. The variety and beauty of the articles for sale, which have been sent from all over the country by old pupils of St. Mary's Institute, will be by old pupils of St. Mary's Institute, will be large. The object is to aid in rebuilding the burned home of the Community of Sisters of Providence, who have been identified with Indianapolis nearly half a century in charitable work. They have never asked public assistance, but have built up their institutions by their own patient labor, and when, on Feb. 7, their mother-house was burned, they began to rear again the shelter so much needed for their declining days. The old pupils of their principal educational institution, St. Mary's of the Woods, seeing this, resolved to give them, unsolicited, what assistance they could command, and to that end have perfected arrangements for the besar. Many donations have been received.

among them a car-load of stone from Mr. Frank Kessing, which will be sold at auction Friday evening.

OPPORTUNITY---This word as used is often meaningless, but as here used it has a great significance, for we purpose to make Monday a day memorable in the history of DRY GOODS by the golden opportunity to be offered to all in the purchase of fine DRESS GOODS. The largest display of fine dress goods ever shown in this city, and at lowest prices, qualities considered. Do not fail to see them.

Fine Embroidered Suits in summer broadcloth, serges, lansdowns, henriettas, camel's hair-prices ranging from $12.90 to $25 a suit, which means $10 per suit less than same goods have sold for this season.

Fine Embroidered Tea-gowns, printed cashmere and challie tea-gown patterns—a great cut in prices.

Fine serges, lansdown, silk and wool heriettas and all-wool heriettas, mohair printed challies, printed mohair, plaid and striped mohair, new colorings-prices way down. Light-ground challies, 4c per yard; dark-ground challies, 5c per yard-big variety; 36inch all-wool Suitings, in check, stripes and heather mixtures, 25c; former price, 50c.

Fine all-wool serges, 40 inches wide, 39c; they would be cheap at 65c per yard. Fine all-wool serges, 50 inches wide, 69c; regular $1 quality; new shades.

Lines of Suitings at 10c, 12 1-2c, 16c, 18c, 20c, 25c—the greatest bargains ever offered, any line of which would be cheap at double the price.

SILKS---Our stock of Fine Silks is large, embracing every novelty of the season. We shall name prices Monday that will make this a grand opportunity to secure fine silks at astonishingly low prices-fine combinations in Persian brocades, stripes and plaids-all the new shades in Faille Francaise and Armure weaves-plain and printed India silks, wash silks, Canton crepes and surahs; special offering in six qualities; black gro grain, 49c, 69c, 79c, 98c, $1.10, $1.25. These goods will be found fully 50 per cent. less than is usually asked for same qualities. See the line of black Aarmures at 98c-a great bargain.

Our purchase of manufacturer's stock of black and fancy jackets, CLOAKS—Our purchase of manufacturer's stock of black and fancy jackets, beaded wraps, at a great sacrifice, will present an opportunity for the purchase of goods in this line at prices which will discount all competition. See the display on tables in our Cloak Department.

Embroideries-We make a superb display in this department. Our purchases at the late trade sales in New York, at low prices, enable us to offer you the choice novelties of the season at startling low prices—a beautiful line of 45-inch flouncings from 33c per yard.

LINEN LACES----We have an immense stock of linen laces. You can buy them at half the cost of importation, 5c, 8c, 10c, 12 1-26 per yard. They will not last long.

Linens-We have made things lively in this department during the past week. Everybody buys; everybody indorses all we have claimed, that this is the finest stock of fine linens ever shown in this city, and that the prices are lowest. There are some grand bargains for the winding up this week. Remnants have accumulated. There are odd lots of napkins, towels, scarfs, etc.; we will not carry them in stock; prices must be made to close them; a few fine hem-stitched sets, ranging in price from $10 to $25; this means just one-half their actual value.

Sheetings-We put on sale Monday two thousand yards of double-fold sheetings at 14 1-2c per yard. This is an opportunity seldom offered to buy a staple article at such a low price.
